Aires of the transfer of the Banco Nolasco and Co. to the new firm of Nolasco, Medici and Co., which is carrying on the banking business henceforward under the style of Banco Ibero-Americano. Mr. Medici is the well-known engineer, and puts a capital of five hundred thousand dollars and Mr. Nolasco puts an equal amount into the firm. The new bank, therefore, starts with a cash capital of one million dollars. Besides their cash capital the partners also give their personal responsibility, which, as is well known, represents more than the "effective." The Banco Ibero-Americano is started to foment the deposits of the working classes and afford a safe means for keeping money in a savings bank. It will conduct all legitimate banking operations to the exclusion of Bolsa or speculative operations. -B. A. Herald.
